Conversational EHR

by: Kupp and Olarte

- Physician salary is the highest cost for healthcare providers.
- Current electronic health record (EHR) solutions tend to be time-intensive and reduce patient throughput.
- Reduced time of interaction between physicians and patients neglects the human aspect of care.

EHR automation: Automatically complete and update patient health information without reducing physician/patient time.

3. How does it work?